

MARSH DONDURMA

"Dondurma sounds exactly like love to music"

Ma'ariv

"When they lock onto a groove the outcome is irresistible"

All about jazz

Marsh Dondurma is a blazing hot Jerusalem based brass band consisting of 15 members. Together, in the past six years they have recorded three acclaimed albums, toured the world playing festivals such as the Montreal Jazz Festival, the Guca Trumpet Festival, the Red Sea Jazz Festival and performed in New York, Croatia and most recently China. They perform regularly all around Israel and have cooperated in concerts and recordings with Israeli artists Beri Saharof, Shlomo Gronich, Eviatar Banai and others.

Marsh Dondurma's music is a unique blend of the warm acoustic power of traditional brass bands and energetic Israeli and Middle Eastern influences. On tour, the band performs on festival stages, in concert halls or clubs and also has the acoustic capability of performing on various street venues.
